

Family Preservation Services

For families in crisis where efforts are being made to preserve the family

The Promoting Safe and Stable Families (PSSF) program, authorized by Title IV-B, Subpart 2 of the Social Security Act, provides federal funding, training and technical assistance to help build state and community capacity to meet the needs of families at risk for child welfare intervention and families in crisis. Reauthorized in 1997, 2001 and 2006 under the Family Service Improvement Act, PSSF offers Georgia the opportunity to:

- Develop and enhance the community-based support and service system for children and families
- Emphasize collaborative approaches to early identification of risk and intervention services that build on the strengths of families
- Help prevent child abuse and neglect by strengthening and stabilizing Georgia families

PSSF is administered in Georgia by the Department of Human Services, Division of Family and Children Services (DFCS). PSSF targets four types of families touched by the child welfare system:

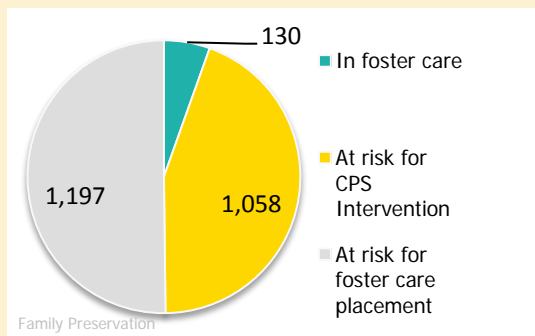

- Families at risk and in need of support
- Families in crisis where efforts are being made to preserve the family
- Families with a child in foster care and whose best interest is to be reunified
- Families in need of adoption or post permanency services

PSSF is one of the few sources of federal funds directed toward the prevention of issues that bring families into the child welfare system.

PSSF Program Areas

PSSF funds provide services to at-risk families in the areas of:

- Family Support to prevent child abuse and neglect among families at risk through the provision of supportive family services
- Family Preservation to assure children's safety within the home and preserve intact families in which children have been abused or neglected when the family's needs can be addressed effectively
- Time-Limited Reunification to address the needs of families whose children have been placed in foster care so that reunification may occur in a safe and timely manner
- Adoption Promotion/Post-Permanency Support to provide foster and adoptive families support services so that they can make a lifelong commitment to their children
